Asian Development Bank (ADB) has listed its 10-year masala bonds worth Rs.850 crore on the global debt listing platform of India INX (BSE-owned exchange).

About the move and its significance

- The proceeds would be used to support local currency lending and investment in India.

- ADB’s masala bonds are listed on both Luxembourg exchange and India INX.

- This is the first time a foreign issuer and a supranational is doing a primary listing with India INX. This will help further in making GIFT IFSC (Gujarat International Finance Tec-City -- International Financial Services Centre) a global hub for fund raising by Indian and Foreign issuers.

What are masala bonds?

- Masala Bonds are rupee-denominated bonds i.e the funds would be raised from overseas market in Indian rupees.
- Any corporate, body corporate and Indian bank is eligible to issue Rupee denominated bonds overseas.

Conditions:

- RBI mandates that the money raised through such bonds cannot be used for real estate activities other than for development of integrated township or affordable housing projects.

- It also can’t be used for investing in capital markets, purchase of land and on-
