Baby Dragons

- 2 rare aquatic creatures officially called proteus or olms, also known as baby dragons, are going on display in aquarium at Slovenia’s Postojna Cave.
- The Olms have pale pink skin, no eyesight, a long thin body and 4 legs.
- They live only in the waters of dark caves of the Southern European Karst region.